If the URL is changed by eBay, you can do the following: * (Optionally) store it in your web browser to monitor eBay-URL automatically. *(Optionally) open a window showing a list of ebay URLs waiting for you! Also can be used for websites with changing contents (i.e., Facebook, Twitter, eBay, MySpace...). Simple, easy to use and powerful! Website Maintenance The Auto URL Refresher is a perfect solution to ensure that your ecommerce website is up-to-date and that you don't miss any changes. If you click on the "Auto URL Refresher Foreground" button you can configure a detailed System log to find out why some pages aren't refreshed correctly. You can use the "System log" to: Find the URLs where the refresh failed or where the number of times is limited. Receive notification (Email or text message) when a web page is refreshed for the first time. You can add more web pages to the list in the "Settings" section. Set the list of URLs that you want to keep track of. For example you can track all eBay pages, the top eBay pages in each category, top eBay categories, top 1000 eBay items or, just all eBay pages. Restrict the refresh interval between 0 and the maximum value. Note: The system log is a useful tool to trace the status of web pages that are dynamic. It is advised to enter the URLs to the System log manually. Otherwise the list will be full of new URLs. So make sure that you have some time to enter the URLs. Auto URL Refresher allows you to connect web pages to the latest version of your website. Just create your own custom database with web sites and URLs, then simply install the software and watch the magic.
