"I support Muslim groups being able to build a community center anywhere in America as long as they follow building codes and don't bring any proselytizing to the site. And I support them being able to build just like we would support any other religious group building a community center," Grand Mufti of the Muslim American Society (MAS) Dr. Muhammad Musri recently told the Forward. The MAS is a "universal" Islamic association with over 300,000 members, the vast majority of them Muslims. The MAS seeks to "through harmony and mutual respect, to strengthen the Islamic community and America by promoting... religious education and awareness, knowledge and understanding of the Islamic faith, improving relations between Muslims and people of other faiths, and by preserving, expanding, and strengthening the Islamic community in America." 3e33713323
