A Little Late With the full moon just a couple of days away, I've been extra busy with chores around the office. It's a good thing, since I need to spend the next few days hunting for donations. The good thing is that I've been emptying most of my closet for the past several weeks, so I've got a good collection to work from. I think it's a safe assumption to say I haven't done this kind of garage sale in a long while. Maybe when I was in college. That's one of the advantages of being between jobs, I've got a lot of extra time in my day. I have to admit, for me this sort of venue is something of a new experience. My shopping trips have taken place in malls, department stores, and big box stores. But most of those transactions are on the up-and-up, cash-for-clothes market. Either that or I
