We report a case of malignant ovarian tumour diagnosed in the middle trimester of pregnancy. An elective caesarean section for fetal distress was carried out at 27 weeks' gestation. The patient was admitted to the Obstetrics and Gynaecology Department for exploration and evaluation. Intraoperatively a mass was identified within the left ovary. Salpingo-oophorectomy was performed. The tumour consisted of mucinous adenocarcinoma and invaded the omentum and the bladder. Chemotherapy was started and the patient was discharged in good condition. Postoperative diagnosis was low-stage mucinous adenocarcinoma of the ovary, International Federation of Gynecology and Obstetrics stage IA. The patient is still in complete remission 4 years after surgery. A review of the literature was performed and 17 cases of malignant ovarian tumours diagnosed during pregnancy were identified.Jonny Keating Jonathan Robert Keating (born 10 May 1988) is an Irish international field hockey player who plays as a forward.
