Dharti is Rajat Kapoor's directorial debut, a Punjabi family drama set in the backdrop of Punjab politics. Baliit Singh Wadala (Prem Chopra) is the head of the ruling party in Punjab and has been stealing money from the party for years. He was caught by Prem Chopra on March 22, 1984 but was able to escape and is now back in Punjab after 15 years of banishment. He sees a chance to regain power and capture Prem Chopra as his puppet. Prem Chopra is a former chief minister, one of the richest men in Punjab and is now a middleaged man who has had a bad marriage and is out to reform the world. He wants to be good to Prem Chopra's two sons. Sunjay and Nitin (Irrfan Khan and Jayantee), who are also ambitious politicians. Prem Chopra and Baljit Singh meet many times and Balit Singh is hostile to Prem Chopra. After listening to a secret compact between Balit Singh and Prem Chopra, Baliit Singh forms a plan to destroy him and become the president of Puniab, Dharti, Movies; 5, Dharti, Songs; 2, Dharti, All songs: 2.
