So, you should make a script in Python and run the following link. from selenium import webdriver import requests driver = webdriver.Chrome(executable_path="C:\Windows\chromedriver.exe") driver.get("") with open('filename.zip', 'wb') as f: for chunk in driver.page_source: chunk: # filter out the blank lines f.write(chunk) driver.quit() Notes Change 'example.com' to your own domain. Change 'filename.zip' to your file name. Change 'C:\Windows\chromedriver.exe' to the path of your driver executable. How to download all zip archives from the web? I have added a recursive method in Python. It downloads all zip files in all folders from a given URL. from urllib import urlretrieve import requests import sys def download_from_url(url, folder): try: req = requests.get(url) except requests.ConnectionError: print("error") sys e79caf774b
